

The City of Youngstown, in partnership with PNC Bank, is hosting two free Homeownership Counseling Sessions on Monday, April 13, 2025. Whether you're just starting to dream or ready to take the leap, these sessions are designed to guide you through the homebuying process with confidence.

Choose a session that fits your schedule:

- Morning Session
- Date: Monday, April 13, 2025 Time: 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM
- Location: Boys and Girls Clubs of Youngstown
- Address: 2105 Oak Hill Avenue, Youngstown, OH 44507

- Evening Session
- Date: Monday, April 13, 2025 Time: 5:00 PM – 7:00 PM
- Location: Boys and Girls Clubs of Youngstown
- Address: 2105 Oak Hill Avenue, Youngstown, OH 44507

(Both sessions are identical, so pick the time that works best for you.)

The City of Youngstown Path to Homeownership initiative is a structured financial wellness series designed to support residents who are preparing to purchase a home. Powered by PNC Bank, this program builds readiness through budgeting, saving, credit education, identity theft protection, and homeownership preparation. The program is intentionally designed to meet participants where they are, emphasizing education, first engagement without the promotion or sale of financial products.

Ready to register?

Contact: John Noga
330 742 8877
jnoga@youngstownohio.gov