MAYOR BROWN, CITY OF YOUNGSTOWN CLOSE RESIDENT FEEDBACK SURVEY AND PROJECT PROPOSAL

The American Rescue Plan (ARP) has allocated $82.7 million to the city of Youngstown for its local recovery fund. The City of Youngstown and Mayor Tito Brown have closed the Resident Feedback Survey and Project Proposal Form in order to gather data collected and begin the review process.

The City hosted a series of listening sessions concerning local ARP priorities. As part of its outreach efforts, the Mayor's Office conducted these sessions in each ward of the city and targeted several unique age groups to obtain more feedback from city residents. Funds provided by the ARP are intended to address the needs arising from the COVID-19 pandemic.

Data gathered from the survey will be used to inform the City's plan. To verify if your proposal has been received, please visit the city's website at <https://youngstownohio.gov/> and click the American Rescue Plan link.
